

REMARKS-General

1. The currently amended independent claims 11 and 15 incorporate all structural limitations of the original claims 1 and 7, and includes further limitations previously brought forth in the disclosure. No new matter has been included. All claims 11 to 29 are submitted to be of sufficient clarity and detail to enable a person of average skill in the art to make and use the instant invention, so as to be pursuant to 35 USC 112.

Response to Objection of Claims 11-21

2. The applicant submits that the currently amended claims 11, 12, 15 and 16 particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter of the instant invention, as pursuant to 35USC112.

Response to Rejection of Claims 11-21 under 35USC112

3. The applicant submits that the currently amended claims 11 and 15, and their corresponding dependent claims 12-14 and 16-21 particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter of the instant invention, as pursuant to 35USC112.

4. The applicant submits that "bakelite" is not only a trademark, but also a generic name for a kind of materials to the person skilled in the art. "Bakelite" was first used to describe polyoxybenzylmethyleneglycolanhydride which is an early plastic or resin made from phenol and formaldehyde. However, "bakelite" is now a generic name for heating-resisting plastic or resin. In other words, it means a thermosetting plastic or resin.

5. The applicant submits that "bakelite" is found in dictionary, not only to mean trademark, but also a kind of materials, even to lay persons. For examples, the word "bakelite" can be found in Wiktionary, Hutchinson encyclopedia and Collins English Distionary (through Free Online Dictionary). The printouts for showing the existence of the word "bakelite" in Wiktionary, Hutchinson encyclopedia and Collins English Distionary are also enclosed for your reference.

5. Applicant believes that for all of the foregoing reasons, all of the claims are in condition for allowance and such action is respectfully requested.

The Cited but Non-Applied References

6. The cited but not relied upon references have been studied and are greatly appreciated, but are deemed to be less relevant than the relied upon references.

7. In view of the above, it is submitted that the claims are in condition for allowance. Reconsideration and withdrawal of the objection are requested. Allowance of claims 11 to 29 at an early date is solicited.

8. Should the Examiner believe that anything further is needed in order to place the application in condition for allowance, he is requested to contact the undersigned at the telephone number listed below.

Respectfully submitted,
